

Christine Downing Dissertation Fellowship

2018 Guidelines and Application Instructions

The Christine Downing Dissertation Fellowship is an annual scholarship awarded to dissertation students of any accredited graduate level institution in the fields of depth psychology and mythology. The Fellowship carries the name of Professor Downing in acknowledgement of her contribution to the fields of depth psychology and mythology, her many years of teaching at Pacifica Graduate Institute, and her gift to OPUS of her own archival materials. The purpose of the Downing Fellowship is to award $5,000 for dissertation research.

Once awarded, the winning student (“Fellow”) must use the collections at OPUS for a significant amount of her or his dissertation research.

The archival collections available for research at OPUS include Joseph Campbell, Marija Gimbutas, James Hillman, Jane and Joseph Wheelwright, Christine Downing, Marion Woodman, Adolf Guggenbühl-Craig, and Katie Sanford. Visit our website for more information at www.opusarchives.org/fellowship.

GUIDELINES

Fellowship Guidelines have changed from previous years – please read

Award Amount: $5,000

Deadline for Submission: All application materials must be received by 5:00 p.m. PST on January 1, 2018

Eligibility Requirements

- Be a student in a doctoral program of any accredited institution writing a dissertation within the fields of depth psychology and/or mythology
- Demonstrate the necessity of substantial on-site use of OPUS’ collections
- Have an approved concept paper
- Have a confirmed dissertation chair

Duration of Fellowship: Requires forty (40) hours of research in the archives. These funds are for one (1) year of research to be conducted between April 1, 2018 and March 31, 2019.

There are 2 stages by which the Fellowship is completed:

- First stage: Preliminary award in the amount of $2,500 with an approved concept paper and/or first chapter of dissertation, and a confirmed dissertation chair. Student will conduct a portion of their research in the archives at this stage. The Fellow is expected to spend twenty (20) hours in the archives doing active research.
- Second stage: Upon submission of an approved dissertation proposal and/or first two chapters of dissertation (which has been accepted by students' dissertation committee) the remaining Fellowship monies, $2,500, will be dispersed and the student will then complete the remaining twenty (20) research hours.

Selection Process: Proposals will be screened by OPUS staff for eligibility. Review and final selection will be conducted by the Fellowship Committee, which includes Christine Downing and selected colleagues.

Notification of Award: March 15, 2018

If after reviewing these pages you have further questions, please email cddf@opusarchives.org

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Eligible Candidates: Students in doctoral programs writing within the fields of depth psychology and mythology with an approved concept paper. The student must plan to use the collections at OPUS for a significant amount of her or his research.

Application materials checklist (See further details and instructions below)

- ___ 1) Applicant Information
- ___ 2) Proposal
- ___ 3) Timeline

Supporting Documents

- ___ 4) Curriculum Vitae
- ___ 5) Approved Concept paper and/or first chapter of dissertation

Sealed Documents

- ___ 6) Graduate transcript
- ___ 7) Two letters of recommendation

Materials for all seven (7) application components for the Christine Downing Dissertation Fellowship must be received by 5:00 p.m. PST on January 1, 2018.

1) Applicant Information

One (1) page containing the following information:

- Your contact information including your name, mailing address, email address, and telephone number.
- Graduate school information including the name of your school, major, dissertation title and dissertation committee with contact information.

2) Proposal

Two (2) pages describing your proposed research project in the archives:

- Discuss specific collection materials and their relevance to the project, as well as how you envision the use of OPUS' archives as specifically supporting your dissertation.
- It is expected that submissions will entail a scholarly exploration into original patterns of thought in depth psychology and mythology.
- Finalists will be judged on quality of composition and development, clarity of thought, and originality of ideas within these fields.
- Additionally, explorations into the archival collections at OPUS must be a core element of the overall research.

3) Timeline

One (1) page containing a timeline of your dissertation work including:

- Your start date and expected completion
- An anticipated schedule of research in the archives.

Please note that appointments in the Archive are available Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Supporting Documents:

4) Curriculum Vitae

5) Approved Concept paper and/or first chapter of dissertation

Your Applicant Information, Proposal, Timeline, and Supporting Documents must be submitted together in one email and be received by 5:00 p.m. PST on January 1, 2018. OPUS will acknowledge the receipt of complete applications by email. Please submit your application and any questions to cddf@opusarchives.org.

Sealed Documents:

6) Graduate School Transcript

Submit an official transcript. You, or your graduate institution, should mail the sealed, official transcript to OPUS Archives. Your official transcript must be received by 5:00 p.m. PST on January 1, 2018.

Faxed and emailed transcripts will not be accepted.

Sealed transcripts should be mailed to:

OPUS Archives, Attn: CDDF
801 Ladera Lane, Santa Barbara, CA 93108.

7) Letters of Recommendation (LOR)

Applications must include two (2) confidential letters of recommendation – one from your dissertation chair and the other from an individual who is qualified to judge your dissertation and research proposal. The LORs should address why the dissertation project is important and why the student is qualified to do the project. Your LORs must be received by 5:00 p.m. PST on January 1, 2018.

Faxed and emailed letters will not be accepted.

Letters should be mailed by the referees to:

OPUS Archives, Attn: CDDF,
801 Ladera Lane, Santa Barbara, CA 93108.

Award Announcement: The award will be announced by March 15, 2018. The fellowship awardee and her or his dissertation project will be acknowledged in OPUS publicity.

Final Research: All Fellows are asked to submit a copy of their dissertation to OPUS when completed.

Summary of Important Dates:

- Deadline: January 1, 2018 for all seven (7) components
- Award Notification, March 15, 2018
- Research Period: April 1, 2018 through March 31, 2019

OPUS Archives and Research Center is a non-profit research center that houses collections of Joseph Campbell, Marija Gimbutas, James Hillman, Jane and Joseph Wheelwright, Christine Downing, Marion Woodman, Adolf Guggenbühl-Craig, and Katie Sanford. In addition to safeguarding these important resources, OPUS works to foster ongoing research in the fields of depth psychology and mythological studies. The OPUS office is open Monday through Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Phone 805-969-5750